

The old sign in the Square may soon take on meaning. Although the bus hasn't stopped for years, the sign is still there admonishing motorists to avoid blocking the bus, which might arrive any time this year. Bob Sweeney, however, is planning to take the train, as he heads for Boston, ignoring the "Bus Stop" sign.

Reading Light to replace meters

To enhance efficiency and service to its customers, the Reading Municipal Light Department (RMLD) will be replacing electric meters in the four member communities as part of an on going electronic meter installation program. The new meters will enable RMLD Field Service Meter Readers to electronically access a customer's monthly electric usage using a hand held device that can pick up signals as far away as 300 feet.

Without entering the customer's property, the information is relayed to the hand held reader and its stored in the device's memory. This information is down loaded into the RMLD's billing computer system when the reader returns to the station.

Several RMLD customers in North Reading and Lynnfield have already received a new meter, according to Field Services. All four RMLD communities (Reading, North Reading, Wilmington and Lynnfield) will be involved in this latest phase of the project.

During the installation of the new

Reading Municipal Light Department (RMLD) Meter Reader Brian Hansen checks the reading on a meter which was recently installed as part of the RMLD's off-site electronic meter reading program. The new meters are being installed in the four member communities serviced by the RMLD.

meters, customers may lose their electricity for approximately one minute while meter service is changed from the old meter to the new meter. The meters will be installed on the outside of the property and have been certified tested by the manufacturer.

All 25,000 customers in the four member RMLD communities will receive a new meter as part of this project. Further information can be obtained by calling RMLD Field Services at 617-944-1340 x 253.

New Rep. to hold office hours in town

Representative Charles A. Murphy (D-Burlington) has announced that he will be holding office hours in Wilmington. Any citizen with a concern or problem, or who would just like to meet Rep. Murphy is welcome to stop by.

The time for the office hours will be the second Wednesday of each month from 6 to 7:30 p.m. The location will be in the conference room on the right as you enter the town hall. The first scheduled date for the hours is Wednesday, February 12.

Additional hours or even a district office is the hope for the future, but in the meantime Murphy hopes that the people of Wilmington's 3rd Precinct will drop in and speak to him regarding anything with which he may be of assistance.

Rep. Murphy's temporary phone number in the State House is 617-722-2800, ext. 7339. Murphy says, "I hope to see people come in for the open office hours, but for any immediate problems don't hesitate to contact me at the State House."

Bus service may come back to town

by Frank Amato

The Wilmington Board of Selectmen continue to investigate the possibilities of renewing bus service to the town.

Town Manager Michael A. Caira is aggressively pursuing at the request of the Selectmen a presentation by Lowell Regional Transit Authority (LRTA) to provide bus service into Wilmington.

LRTA presently provides service to Tewksbury, and this would be simply an extension of that service.

The LRTA made the following two proposals to the board of selectmen:

Option 1: Extend present Tewksbury fixed bus route service to continue along Route 38 past the Wilmington Train Station, up Route 62 with a turnaround in the Elderly Housing complex at Deming Way. Eight (8) round trips per day, Monday-Friday. Annual projected cost $35,000.

Option 2: Extend present Tewksbury fixed bus route service to continue along Route 38 past the Wilmington Train Station, up Route 62 with a turnaround at the MBTA connection at Routes 3A & 62. Eight (8) round trips per day, Monday-Friday. Annual projected cost $58,362.

The LRTA also provided several options for a "Road Runner" service for the elderly, offering Mini Busses for: Medical Trips, Shopping Trips Recreational and social trips, and Work trips for disabled individuals.

The Board is also interested in reviewing proposals that would expand service to other parts of Wilmington while incorporating the routes already proposed. Those would include:

Extension to Woburn line on Main Street.

Extension to Lucci's Plaza on Lowell Street.

A comprehensive route that would allow a connection to the MBTA bus service at the Woburn line, and service to Lowell Street and Lucci's Plaza via Main, Eames and Woburn Streets.

Caira has also been discussing the bus situation with the MBTA representatives from the MBTA met with Caira and discussed an extension of the MBTA in to Wilmington. The MBTA hopes to have a written proposal in time to submitted to Town Meeting.

Still wearing the good guy's hat

Now Ivan needs a hand

by Frank Amato

Ivan Palmer, 77, a genuine Wilmington bright light who has been helping the handicapped and elderly for over a decade is now in need of help of his own.

Palmer, who is a member of AIM (Angels in Motion) a group of Wilmington residents who give their time and efforts to help those in need, recently found his own niche.

For about the last five years, Ivan has been recycling wheelchairs, hospital beds, walkers, and other medical equipment of all types.

At his own expense, Ivan finds this equipment, usually in some need of repair and fixes what needs to be repaired. He then proceeds to donate these repaired items to needy residents.

Over the years, Palmer has accumulated lots of wheelchairs, hospital beds etc.

The problem you ask? Ivan has received so much he has it stored all over Wilmington. In fact, he has it stashed in five different places.

Ivan is in desperate need of space to store all of his material and place to complete his repairs.

Palmer has spoken with lots of people who have offered to help, but none have come through yet. Why? Red tape.

Everywhere he has gone, and everyone he has spoken with turned up nothing but frustration. Apparently, there is no place for Ivan to use.

Finally, Ivan spoke to Selectman Jim Rooney who has taken on Ivan's cause. Rooney is "aggressively" searching for a place for Ivan to call home. "there are a couple of legitimate possibilities that are being pursued" the Selectman said.

If those possibilities don't pan out, Palmer doesn't know what he'll do next. "People have been gracious, but they want their space back," Ivan said.

Sadly enough, all Ivan needs is a space about 20x25 ft. Which is enough room to store his equipment and do the repairs he needs to do. Since Ivan is paying what expenses there are from his Social Security check, any space would have to be donated. But, may be tax deductible for the landlord.

Anyone able to help is urged to call the Town Crier at 658-2346, Ivan at 658-2081 or Judy DiPalma (AIM) at 658-5107.

Wilmington / Florida reunion March 15

It's that time of year to again make your vacation plans to join your Wilmington friends and neighbors down in sunny Florida. We will hold the fifth annual Wilmington Winter Reunion beginning about 10:30 a.m., Saturday March 15.

The event is scheduled to be held at Shelter number eight in Fred Howard Park, off Alt. Rt. 19 in Tarpon Springs, Florida. Howard Park is just west of Tampa on the Gulf Coast. This is the same park and shelter the group has used for the past few years.

Just take a picnic lunch, and any other Wilmington folks who are in the neighborhood. Drop by and reminisce with Wilmington friends, old and new.

Last year over 200 gathered for the day. Some still live in Wilmington while others have been away from the old home town for many years.

Both the picnic shelter and restrooms are handicapped accessible. The park also has a playground for youngsters, walking trails and a beautiful beach on the Gulf of Mexico.

This is your invitation, drop by and join the group for a fun day!

Dewling School news

Friday, January 24, the Dewling School PAC will host their second Story Hour of the school year from 7 to 8 p.m. in the school library.

This is open to all Dewling students in grades K through two and their parents (please, no younger or older siblings). This month's featured storyteller is Cindy Killavey from Portsmouth, RI. She will be reciting some winter bedtime stories to the children. Children may take their favorite bedtime pal and hot cocoa and a snack will be served immediately following the show.

On Monday, January 27, the Dewling School roller skating party will take place at Roller Kingdom located in Tyngsboro from 6 to 8 p.m.

All Dewling students and their families are invited for an evening of fun, and hopefully, not too many bumps. Admittance is free - the only cost is for skate rental which runs about $3 per pair. Those with their own roller skates or roller blades may take them along and skate free of charge.

LENDERS WANT TO SAY "YES"

If you consider yourself incapable of getting credit, you may be living in the past in terms of assessing your financial situation. Lenders are now bending over backwards to give money to borrowers. A recent survey of mortgage lenders found some interesting trends. Ninety-six percent of those surveyed had cut their standard down payment requirements for moderate-income buyers. Ninety-three percent said they are more lenient in their income-ratios (the ratio of your debts to income), and 94% of those surveyed said they now have more flexible approaches to credit histories, and look at rent and utility payments more than credit cards.

Seventy-nine percent of lenders say they have relaxed employment criteria. They now look more at your capacity to generate a stable flow of income rather than requiring a long history at one job. There are more lenders today, and they are in fierce competition with each other. The home loan industry had created entire markets that cater to those with less-than-perfect credit.

NUMBERS FOR 97

Though the tax rates are pretty much the same this year, the starting points for higher tax brackets have crept up. For married people, the 28-percent rates starts at a taxable income of $41,200 (up $1,100 from last year); the 31-percent bracket begins at the $99,600 level, 36 percent at $151,750.

Singles hit 28 percent at $24,650, 31 percent at $59,750 and 36 percent at $124,650. Head-of-household trigger points are $33,050, $85,350 and $138,200. For everyone, the 39.6 percent rate starts at $271,050. Note that alternative minimum tax brackets and exemptions are not indexed, so more people may have to pay that. Taxpayers are supposed to figure both regular tax and AMT and pay whichever is higher.

The Social Security wage base rises to $65,400 this year, at the same rates, and benefits will increase 2.9 percent. Beneficiaries can earn more without losing benefits: $8,640 for those under 65, $13,500 from 65 to 69. There's no limit for those over 70.

Outdoors... with the President

by Ed Larkin
Washington DC. The call came from the top, the top of the stairs - that is, from my wife. They want you in Washington. This is the big one I thought to myself. They finally realized an outside mind can help sort out the puzzle we call our government.

The call informed me to come to Washington to support the Armed Forces Inaugural Committee (AFIC). Yes, I am going to work for the President but in, well, more of a support role. Always better to start small and work your way up.

I arrived in Washington on January 7 and reported to the AFIC center along with 20 other weekend warriors from the Army, Navy, Marines, Air Force, and Coast Guard. We were called to help the active component with the many final details.

The first order of business upon arrival at the AFIC center is getting the proper security identification. This badge allowed the holder into the heart of the AFIC operations center. In a matter of 15 minutes, I was one of the chosen few who had access to the second floor washroom.

After two full days of briefings, we were ready to get on the ground and do a route reconnaissance. It went from just below the Capitol all the way up Pennsylvania Avenue past the Presidential viewing area at Lafayette Square. One point six miles of bone chilling marching for our nation's troops and high school marching bands.

In typical military precision the members of the AFIC team set up exact times and plans of action for Inauguration Day. Everything would fall into place just as long as our second term Commander in Chief stayed on time. So we all decided to buy those small heating pads you can insert in your gloves and shoes. Our President is not known for keeping a timely schedule, and after all this is his second term.

We were assigned to various locations to escort the media throughout the day. With hands full of information, we were able to provide information or direct the media outlets to military personnel for interviews. When you see the preparations for this event, you start to understand why the Presidential Inaugural Committee requests the support of the military.

From the military side we are here to Honor the Inauguration of the President of the United States. The military has participated in inaugural events since 1789, when George Washington was sworn in as our first Commander-in-Chief. This historical role of the military continues with the Presidential Military Escort, military units, military bands, and the parade route Cordon. The Cordon is made up of members of all the nation's military forces. They line the entire parade to render honors to the President.

The big question everyone is asking is why do we need this big party with the taxpayers' money? I can only speak for the military side of the house. We are a Department of defense - authorized inaugural support unit consisting of a temporary Joint Task Force of Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen, Marines, and Coast Guardsmen. The military has had to participate in inaugural events since the start of our democracy. We are involved to support the peaceful continuation of civilian leadership, a hallmark of our American democracy.

My role is guiding and assisting the national, local and military media at the Lafayette Park, directly across from the Presidential viewing stand. I keep hoping the President and First Lady are going to ask me in for a late lunch or early dinner. Still, if I don't get a sit down meal with our chief executive, it is great hanging out with the big guy.

I have my moments in history, I played a supporting role in ensuring our second term President, William Jefferson Clinton, was given the honors he deserves, as our nation's top leader. Yes, this event is full of hype, but it is truly a wonderful example of a system that benefits its citizens better than any other country in the world.

In defense of using our armed forces in supporting such an event, our military personnel are doing the job they would be doing at their home station. The inauguration is an event that shows the world the strength and resolve the United States has in maintaining its commitment to democratic ideals. In the end, Washington DC is still the most confusing place in the world.

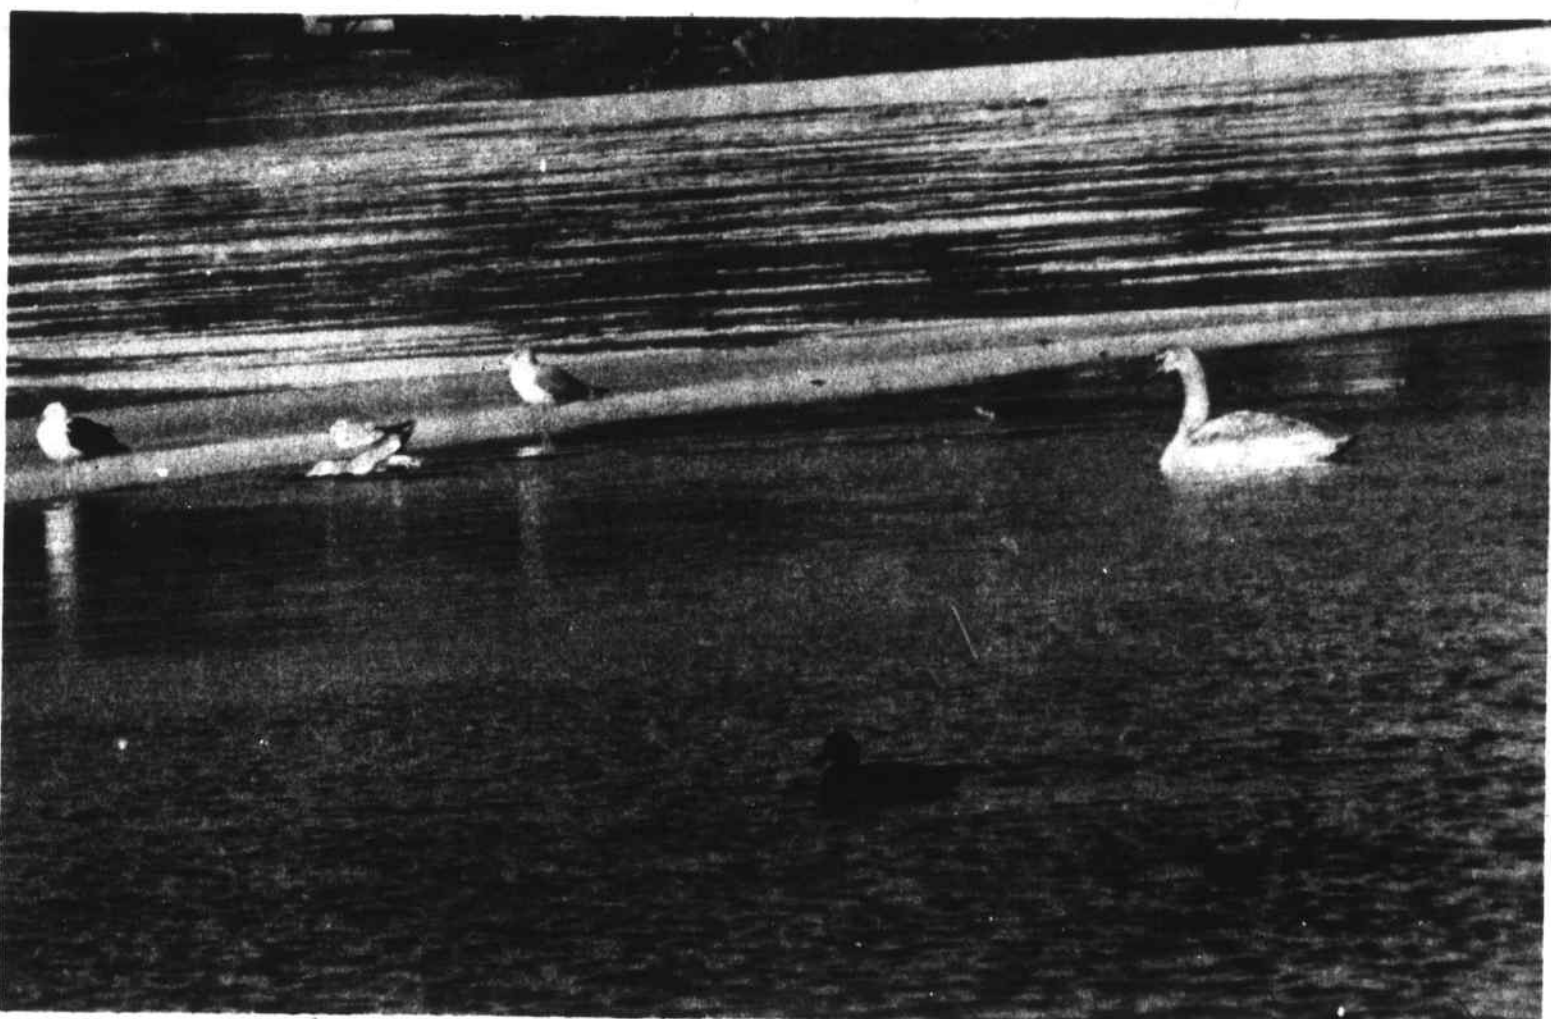

Presidential Inaugural History and Facts

Our first President's journey to New York where he was to be inaugurated was a week long parade. Along his trip from Mount Vernon to New York City, supporters joined his train of carriages through their individual states. George Washington, April 30, 1789.

Thomas Jefferson was the first president to be inaugurated in Washington DC. In 1801, the capital city was still being built - only the Senate side of the Capitol had been constructed, the White House sat unfinished and Pennsylvania Avenue was still a muddy path. Jefferson chose to walk to his swearing-in from his temporary lodgings and reversed the trip following the ceremony. Thomas Jefferson, March 4, 1801.

William Henry Harrison insisted on going without a topcoat, hat or gloves while delivering his record breaking inaugural speech (one hour, 45 minutes) and while leading the parade on his white charger. Harrison died less than a month late of pneumonia, the first president to die in office. William Henry Harrison, March 4, 1841.

A snowstorm and bitter cold temperatures caused Ronald Reagan's second Inaugural Parade to be the only canceled Inaugural Parade in U.S. History. Ronald Reagan, January 20, 1985.

This large white bird was paddling about in Silver Lake for several days last week. The first report the Town Crier recieved was on Wednesday morning, Jan 15th, and since then several more readers have phoned in to say they've seen a swan on the lake. The obvious pun is too easy, so we will leave it up to the reader.

We also heard that someone was trying to catch the swan. (photo by Frank Amato)

Backyard birding

by Hugh Wiberg

The casual backyard bird watcher can learn a lot with the use of a pair of binoculars. Binoculars enable us to observe many things which might otherwise not be noticed. Let me give you just one example: Several years ago I was studying a flock of goldfinches at one of our sunflower seed feeders, using my Tasco 10 power binoculars. This particular feeder held hulled (shell-less) sunflower seed and, because the finches did not have to work to get an immediate snack, there was plenty of activity on this bitter cold and snowy day.

As I watched the goldfinches wolfing down the sunflower hearts I noticed that they would take a seed in their beaks and break it into smaller pieces. At least half of the seed would fall to the ground, to be consumed by squirrels and morning doves. Since the hull-less sunflower seeds are about double the cost of the regular small black (oil) seeds, I decided then and there to stop putting out shell-less sunflower seed. The finches are still getting their nourishment; they just have to work for it and there is less waste to attract squirrels. If you are considering buying a pair of binoculars, I recommend Tasco's 10 power unit, available at Sears for about $50. I am buying my black oil sunflower seed (which the birds prefer two to one over the longer striped sunflower seed) in 50 pound bags. Locally, you can purchase 50 pound bags at the Wilmington Pet Store on Main Street for $15.98, which figures out to .32 a pound. This compares with .50 a pound when you buy your sunflower seed in five pound bags.

As mentioned before, I do not encourage buying mixed wild bird seed, since our wintering over birds, except for sparrows and doves, do not care much for the tiny tan colored milo and millet seeds which comprise the bulk of the mixed seed. All you really need to bring the birds into your yard is sunflower seed, suet, and bread scraps.

In an earlier column, I suggested it might be of interest this winter to keep an inventory of the species seen at our feeders in Wilmington and Tewksbury. I thought we might approach 25 by April, with 14 species having been noted as of the first of January. We are now up to 18 different birds, not counting a hawk and a falcon seen in January (more on this shortly). We have recently added song sparrows, house sparrows, Carolina wrens, and cedar waxwings, and we just may get to 25 before spring.

Conspicuous by their absence this winter are three northern birds (Ontario and Quebec) which often wander down to New England when the snow cover is severe in Canada. These are evening grosbeaks, red polls and pine siskins. Has anyone seen one or more of these species yet? Please call me evenings at 658-5852 if you have. And contact me also if you see a bird you cannot identify; with a verbal description (and my trusty Peterson's Eastern Birds) I may be able to help with an I.D.

The phone has been busy in January. Space limitations do not allow me to list every call, but here are several which may be of interest. Marilyn Chalifour of Shawsheen Avenue in Wilmington reports seeing two robins and a cedar waxwing feeding on the dried fruit in her ornamental cherry tree. Robins are being reported frequently in eastern Massachusetts this winter, another indication that, in spite of the recent cold snap, this will be a relatively mild (and hopefully snowless) winter.

Maureen Rounds on Butters Row informs us that they have three wild turkeys in their neighborhood, named Maxine, Laverne and Shirley. This makes at least eight turkeys spotted in Wilmington, including the five we see regularly here on Middlesex Avenue in North Wilmington.

Harry Angus, Pond Street in Tewksbury, called with a very unusual sighting. Early in January he spotted a merlin in his yard, casually dining on a small bird, probably a finch or a sparrow. (An excellent picture of a merlin - a blue jay size falcon, can be noted on page 163 of Peterson's Eastern Birds.) Although merlins are indigenous to New England, they usually migrate to South America in the winter. Mr. Angus was certain of his I.D., and especially noted the broad black bands on a gray tail.

Pat Tangusso, Moonlight Drive in South Tewksbury, reported seeing a small flock of cedar waxwings in her crab apple tree on New Year's Day. Cedar waxwings, quite sharp in their formal attire, are wanderers, always on the lookout for dried fruits. They seldom stay more than a day before they move on. I see them frequently in my meanderings in the Ipswich River Wildlife Sanctuary.

Finally, I spotted a single Carolina wren at our suet feeder on January 7, and observed a red tailed hawk high in a pine tree looking for his (or her) lunch behind our property on January 7.

Don't be bashful!! If you would like to contribute to this column with a question or a new sighting, please call me any evening up to 11 o'clock.

Back to you about mid February.

Rick Goldsmith was pictured as he brought his employer's buffalo, Prince William under control. "Willie," usually confined to his pen, escaped when snow became so deep there that he could simply step of the fence and stroll into the parking lot of the DPW building, much to the surprise of employees there.

Willie was corralled, unharmed and returned home after his friends placed a cloth bag over his head to calm him.

Following a presentation by the president of Compudyne, selectmen tabled the police department's request for a new police computer system that would reportedly improve the quality and efficiency of the police force in town.

Daffodil Days

As winter sweeps the area, the American Cancer Society is looking forward to providing a touch of spring with our annual Daffodil Days celebration in March.

As we begin to plan, we would like to invite area residents to get involved with this year's celebration of hope and spring. Volunteers are needed in many areas:

- * Join the Daffodil Days Committee and share your ideas and thoughts during our planning process. Your talents, input, and contacts will help us save even more lives.

- * Pre-sell daffodils in your business or neighborhood.

- * Help us get the word out about Daffodil Days in your area.

- * Help us sell Daffodils the week of the event at local sales sites.

- * Help us deliver Daffodils to area businesses and donors.

Please feel free to contact your local American Cancer Society office at 454-0900 with any questions you might have. Our needs are varied. Any amount of time you are able to share will be greatly appreciated.

The daffodil is the first flower of spring and, as such, symbolizes hope and renewed life for cancer patients and their families. This vital fund raiser sustains our local programs of research, education and patient services. This year's Daffodil Days will run from March 18 to March 23. Bouquets of 10 flowers are $5.

Shawsheen School News

by Joanne Waterhouse

The first grade is learning about our community. We are making their own town map in the hallway on A-3, A-4 and A-5. We are also making really neat puppets for reading. We are also learning about our bodies and making skeletons in science. We are learning about the weather, each child is making their own thermometer.

A In C-26 Grade-4 we are learning about electricity in science. We learned about Braille in reading, after reading a story called "The Gift." We also learned about having cranberry harvesting and maple sugaring in the New England region.

Mrs. Iorio grade 2 B-16. We celebrated Martin Luther King's birthday and are writing our own versions of I Have a Dream. We will be celebrating black history month by listening to and reading stories by wonderful African American authors and illustrators.

Mrs. Keating grade 3 C-23. This week, the class began its story of Wilmington's history. We learned many facts about the Middlesex Canal and its extension through Wilmington. This topic is one of historical significance to Wilmington that will be studied in weeks to come.

In A-2 Mrs. Foresteire's first graders are starting a new literacy bag. This bag is Corduroy. It goes home at night with games and activities for the child to do and comes back the next day for a different child to take home. The children just finished the book bag, Millions of Cats. Mrs. Foresteire and Miss Barry's A-2. In science we are still studying the weather and have made wind flags to test the wind. They were certainly used last week as we discovered it was a very windy week.

In A-1 Miss Barry's room the children are writing Franklin Stories.

See you next time.

North Street School students of the month

Each month, in Tewksbury's North Street School, at least one child per classroom is honored as "Student of the Month." The status is earned as a result of completing a project (on a voluntary basis) that his/her teacher considers outstanding in that classroom.

Students are then honored in the following manner:

Names announced through the public address system; a certificate presented by the principal; a coupon to be exchanged at the school store for school related merchandise; a school logo button which says "I'm Worth It."

The winners for December:

Kindergarten: Michael Allen, Mark Adamson, Kyle Russell,

Christina Rollka.

Grade one: Debra Hannigan, Vincent DePierro, Mary Lane, Michael Walton.

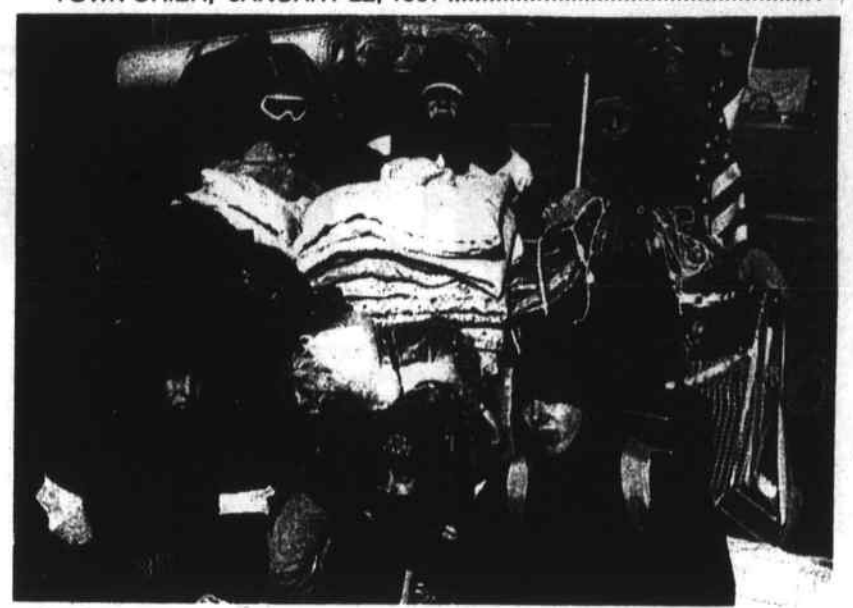

Grade two: Vaidehi Patel, Marc Marotta, Krystina Blaney, Vishal Patel.

Grade three: Michael Ward, Amanda Graham, Daniel Kasprzak, Kelly Anderson.

Grade four: James Ryser, Eric Ferreira, Brian Chambers.

Grade five: Courtney Jones, Ryan Dunlevy, Alex Marcin, Valene Hebert.

The school is grateful to Elaine Zunino and the PAC for their help and support with this project. Congratulations to all the winners.

Troop 56 braves the cold

by Dan Cheney

In the blistering cold, with the fear of frostbite the Boy Scouts of Troop 56 attended the annual OPB (operation Polar Bear) at Fort Devens.

These daring young men, myself included competed against boy and girl scouts from up and down the east coast in events like knot tying, compass courses and dog sled races. All while trying to keep warm.

Although we competed with the girl scouts all day Saturday, we also socialized with them at the dance Saturday evening. When the dance was over, however, it was a different story everybody went their separate ways to turn in for the night.

Man, it was cold, trying to keep warm at night in a tent is hard. Some scout troops bailed out and went home. but troop 56 braved the cold and stayed the night.

Sunday morning came and so did the awards. Troop 56 did very good, placing 5th overall and went home with a smile.

This boy scout thinks it was all in good fun.

We've finally landed

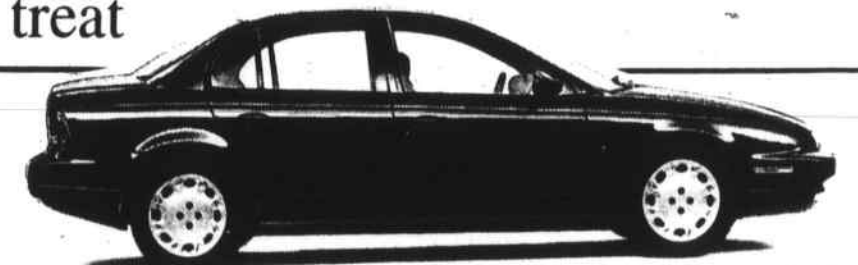

We're very pleased to announce the opening of our newest Saturn showroom. And we'd like to invite you in for a visit - to show you some of the ways we're trying to change the automobile business. It's in the way we design our cars. And how we build them. And most of all, how very differently we take care of our customers - more like how you might treat a new neighbor.

(Which sort of makes sense, huh?)

Hope to see you soon.

AMERICAN GUTTER CLEANING CO. (508) 851-6045

Joe and Carol Rocha say, "It's time to clean your gutters"... and American Gutter is ready!

Family values are important to you. You make decisions based on how they will affect your loved ones. It follows that you would want your home improvements done by a business that applies the same family values in everything they do.

American Gutter Cleaning Co. is that kind of family run company. Joe Rocha established the American Gutter Cleaning Co over 10 years ago. He and his wife, Carol, run the company, along with their highly trained, reliable, and fully insured staff.

If gutters aren't cleaned at least once or twice a year, you could be increasing the chance of interior water damage to your home. It's important to have your gutters cleaned and inspected for minor damage before the New England snow and ice arrive, and also in the spring after the maples and other trees have dropped their flowers or any remaining leaves.

If you're like most people and don't look forward to climbing up a ladder to do the job yourself, let American Gutter help you keep that ladder in the shed where it belongs. Their service is prompt, and their prices are reasonable; an average house, with aluminum gutters, is $35-$75. If you purchase a Gutter Cleaning Contract, which includes two cleanings per year, you'll enjoy a 10% discount and receive a free gutter inspection. And now, in addition to cleanings, American Gutter will install your new gutters. If you're planning to install 100 ft or more of new gutters, take advantage of their special $50 discount.

To make arrangements and become a valued customer of the American Gutter Cleaning Co., call (508) 851-6045 today! Don't you think it's well worth it?

Horse Salve Eases Arthritis Pain

LOUISVILLE, KY -- An ingredient derived from hot peppers that decreases inflammation in racehorse's legs, has now been approved by government researchers for human use. The ingredient has been formulated into a product called ARTH-Rx. ARTH-Rx comes in a strength designed for humans. Researchers are excited and say the formula can relieve arthritis pain for millions.

Developed by the Phillips Gulf Corporation, ARTH-Rx is a breakthrough in the treatment of painful disorders ranging from minor aches and pains to more serious conditions such as arthritis, bursitis, rheumatism, tendonitis, backache and more.

Although the mechanism by which ARTH-Rx works to relieve pain is not totally clear, scientists suggest that pain is relieved because ARTH-Rx intercepts the messenger substance that sends pain signals to the brain.

ARTH-Rx is available in a convenient roll-on applicator without a prescription. According to a spokesperson for the company, due to the overwhelming demand for ARTH-Rx, supplies are sometimes limited. ARTH-Rx can also be ordered by calling 1-800-729-8446. © 1996 PGIC

The tide recedes but leaves behind bright seashells on the sand,
The sun goes down, but gentle warmth still lingers on the land,
The music stops, and yet it echoes on with sweet refrains...
For every joy that passes something beautiful remains.
Our love always,

when you switch to a gas heating system

By now, most New Englanders know that natural gas is clean, convenient, dependable and the most economical way to heat your home. Unfortunately, many people still think it's difficult or time-consuming to switch to gas. The truth is, it's wonderfully simple — all it takes is a phone call. As for the new gas heating equipment, you can purchase it directly from the experts at Colonial, or from a heating contractor of your choice. The whole installation process is quick and easy. And because natural gas is piped directly into your home, it's there when you need it.

Maybe that's why over 200,000 people switched to gas last year. And why 9 out of 10 new homes are built with natural gas.

The first step is easier than ever too. Just call to set up an appointment. 800-548-8000

See the light.

Direct deposit

The Social Security Administration has started a drive to have all Social Security recipients have their payments directly deposited to their bank accounts. Why is this important to those 65 and over and to the Social Security? For the recipient it is protection. The payment is electronically deposited into your account eliminating the need for Social Security to print and mail your check. You don't have to wait every month for the mail to arrive with your check and then worry how you are going to cash it if you don't have transportation.

If you are away due to sickness or visiting when the check arrives, there are many unscrupulous individuals just waiting to steal a Social Security, SSI or Pension check left in a mail box. In addition to being lost, stolen or misplaced you will know your money will be in the bank account on the payment date. You can write a check to pay bills on the day it arrives at the bank. Direct deposit saves the Social Security 40 cents printing and mailing every check. Imagine the astronomical amount of money saved by Social Security from the millions of checks that are being mailed out every month for those 65 and older. This money saved is used for Social Security cost of living increases.

To sign up for direct deposit, contact your bank handling your account. Most banks have the forms to complete. All you will have to do is sign it. If you do not have a bank account you should consider opening one now. In 1999 all payments will be directly deposited to bank accounts. Some banks will give interest on payments. Remember it is still important to notify the Social Security office when you change your address.

Wilmington resident Super Bowl bound

by Jamie Pote

Perhaps witnessing the New England Patriots getting into the Super Bowl is one tremendous feeling. But, how about flying to New Orleans and being on the sidelines and getting an opportunity to be a part of the extravaganza for free?

Kelly Lavita, a 21-year-old Wilmington native and a 1993 WHS graduate, will be doing all of that as one of the Patriots Cheerleaders.

"It has been an incredible experience," said Lavita who will be leaving on Thursday. "It still hasn't hit me yet that I'm going to New Orleans."

Becoming a Patriot Cheerleader was not that easy for Lavita. This past spring she traveled to Foxboro for the third straight spring to take part in the tryouts. Lavita said when she tried out for the 1995-'96 season there was probably 350 girls from all over trying out, while this past Spring she said there was only about 200.

At the tryouts, Lavita said all of the girls spend an entire day doing different dance routines and so forth and at the end of the day Sormanti keeps 100 of the girls. The following day, Sormanti does personal interviews with each of the 100 girls and then those 100 all vie for just nine open positions. And before this past spring, Lavita had not made the final cut twice, but she said that never bothered her.

"It was really overwhelming to walk in and see so many people," Lavita said. "But, it's so much fun - that's why I kept going back, all of the cheerleaders were so friendly and I had such a fun time. I suggest to anyone to come down to the tryouts, it's so much fun."

Before the football season started, Lavita had never been a cheerleader before.

"I tried out for basketball cheerleading my freshman year, but I got cut. I don't know why but being a high school cheerleader wasn't for me. But now a lot of our stuff is based on dancing and stuff like that," Lavita said.

Currently Lavita goes to Rivier College in Nashua, N.H. where she majors in education. She works at the Burlington Studios teaching dance classes and she said she loves dealing with children and that's one of the main reasons why she took this part-time job, so to speak with the Patriots.

"We do a ton of promotional stuff and a lot of it has to do with dealing with kids. It's so great to see the kids' faces because they act like we are Superman or something," Lavita laughed.

Lavita said the cheerleaders do get paid, but being a Patriot Cheerleader shouldn't be their lone job.

"Our group is really diverse - we have moms, nurses, teachers and many of them are married. We have a very talented squad - our ages range from 20-32," Lavita said.

After Lavita was named to the team, she said during the hot summer days the entire squad practiced twice a week on Wednesdays and Saturdays at Foxboro Stadium.

She said that same routine continued during the fall except that there were games on Sunday as well as promotional and charity activities as well.

"There were a lot of times that it took up five days a week. But all of this has been worth it. I can't explain how much fun it has been," Lavita said.

Lavita said that during games the 36 cheerleaders are broken up into four groups of eight. She said they cheer during timeouts and when the stadium plays music, and they occasionally do an end-zone routine and/or halftime routine. But, there is one bad aspect of being a cheerleader - none of them can ever talk to any of the Patriots players.

"They are very serious about that," Lavita said. "When you make the team, you have to sign a 'No Fraternization Policy Contract'. The cheerleaders are a completely different organization than the players - I think all of the teams have that policy except for two and I think the Cowboys are one of them. But we are a lot different that the Cowboys Cheerleaders - we all have futures and we have brains and we are not here just because of our looks".

Lavita said her organization pays for the trip, but she doesn't know whether or not the cheerleaders will get the chance to tour New Orleans.

"We are hoping to meet Luther Vandross - I have heard that he might be coming to the stadium so I'm really hoping we meet him. We are staying until Monday so maybe we will have time to look around," Lavita said.

Asked if she thought the Patriots would ever be going to the Super Bowl Lavita said, "When I made the team I told everyone that this was the year for them and no one believed me. Whenever they faced a good team I kept saying they were going to win.

"And when they won [the AFC Championship game] I came home in tears because I was so happy. But we are suppose to be in high spirits - we are there to make sure the fans have a good time," Lavita said.

So for a $5 fee of registering and a trip to Foxboro, any female at least the age of 18 can tryout to become a New England Patriot and according to Lavita, if one likes dancing, gymnastics and plain old fun, then an experience is awaiting.

"Hopefully, I will see many girls from Wilmington there in the spring. I encourage everyone to come down - it's so much fun," Lavita said.

Who knows, you might get the chance to fly to some terrific city like New Orleans for free and be on the field when the Patriots celebrate their Championship? Hopefully, fans of the Patriots will get to see Kelly Lavita celebrate on National Television on Sunday.

Another gem for McCune

by Jamie Pote

The last few years have been really exciting for the Wilmington High School boys basketball team. The team has always been filled with terrific ball players - whether it's been Paul Bruno, Dave DeSantis, Dan Kivelhan or Doug Olender - Jim McCune always seems to be get kids with some talent and turn them into terrific basketball players.

While Kivelhan and Olender were expected to come up big as they matured, DeSantis and Bruno really came around in the senior seasons.

Now this year, junior Scott Swiezynski has really come into his own as a big time player, but everyone knew that could happen. But did anyone know that senior Eric Clancy would be the player he has become?

"I haven't seen a better guard than Eric so far this season," said McCune.

That certainly says something since at the start of this season, Clancy was figured into the plans to rotate with Jeff Arciero and Mike Gargan as three potentially very good guards. But after Arciero and Gargan both got hurt, it was Clancy who had to get this team off to a quick start.

McCune always knew Clancy had the talents and the determination to become a big-time player - he just needed a little polishing on his skills and a little self confidence.

"Eric reminds me a lot of Dave DeSantis," McCune said. "Both of them had the skills but it wasn't until their seniors years in which everything all came together for them.

"For Eric, I think he first had to get comfortable with me and I know I'm not the easiest coach to play for. I always knew Eric could shoot, but I wanted him to improve on his shooting off the dribble. Before, he would get the ball, look up, hesitate and then start to penetrate. Now, Eric gets

Eric Clancy surely can shoot with the best of them. He has proven he can hit the open jumper, the three-pointer, a lay-up or even many clutch free throws. Pass? He's only the leading assist person as he usually is in double digits in both scoring and assists.

"My game plan is to get everyone involved in the game. I much rather get 13 assists and 10 points than 20 points and no assists. We are a good team when everyone gets involved in the play and I try to do just that," Clancy said.

The last few games or so, Clancy has really turned it on offensively. He has scored 24, 17 and 16 points and on Tuesday, Clancy added another 16 points (13 in the first half). Clancy has many values to the 7-4 squad. He is second behind Swiezynski in team scoring, first in assists, he plays solid defense and he plays the toughest position in basketball that is, of course, point guard.

"I was really looking forward to [rotate with Arciero and Gargan]. I thought it would give me more freedom to bring the ball up the sidelines and it would take a lot of pressure off me," Clancy said. "It was tough when they both went down because they are both very good players. Jeff played the other day so he is coming back slowly and Mike I guess is still another few weeks away. But we need both of them back."

Clancy attributes his vast improvement to playing summer basketball. He said McCune told him to work on his ball handling and Clancy said he believes working on that along with getting a quicker step has helped him out tremendously.

"Eric has done everything we ask him to do. He has had All-Conference season for us. He has done a very, very good job of moving the ball," McCune stressed. "He has assumed a big responsibility and he has been a real joy to coach. Eric plays a lot of minutes for us and when he gets tired he gets sloppy and he gets down on himself. It's due to his hard work that we are 6-4 (before Monday night's win).

"The only thing I would like to see him do a little more is being a vocal leader. He has to get his leadership qualities out - he doesn't do enough of that and with a young team like we have, we need him to be a leader," McCune said.

McCune said after Clancy nailed two free throws against Dracut in the final seconds to beat them in the Christmas Tournament, that he and Clancy have butted heads several times because of his determination and thrive to win. Clancy agrees.

"I think we both have the same goals. We both want to win, we both want to get into the state tourney and we both want the team to improve every game," Clancy said.

Right now the team stands at 7-4 overall, but both Clancy isn't satisfied.

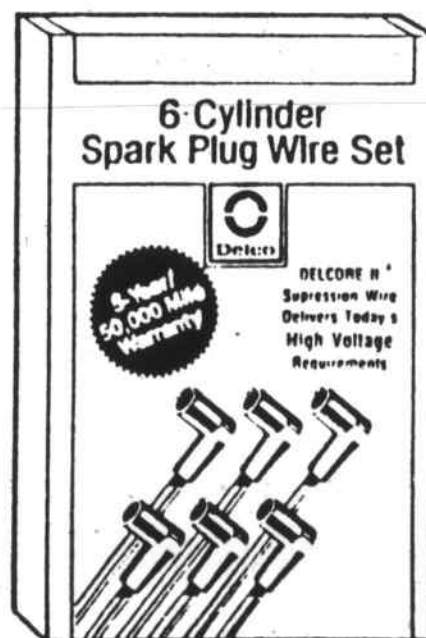

"The last couple of games we haven't been playing good defense," Clancy said. "We like to keep teams around 40 points and they have been scoring 60 or so. We have to pick it up defensively."

Pote's Column

I have to give credit, where credit is due

by Jamie Pote
It's Super Bowl time - can you believe it?

This is probably the first time in my life that I will get to really appreciate what it is to be in the Big Dance. I mean I appreciated it: when the Sox, Celtics and Patriots were all in the big dances in '86, but I was also just 12 years old at that time. And when your 12 years old, perhaps you don't realize that the glory of the teams being in their respective Big Dances doesn't come around too often. That's weird isn't it?

When I gave out my predictions before the season started, I said that the Green Bay Packers would win the Super Bowl over the L.A. Raiders. Raiders ... Ugh! I did say that the Pats would finish 11-5 which they did, and I say they would win their division and they did that also.

And to tell you the truth, I thought the Pats could go all the way because I knew the Raiders weren't that strong. I thought the Bills and Chiefs were overrated and I didn't think Jacksonville and Denver would have the seasons that had. But, I didn't pick the Pats to go the Super Bowl for one huge reason - because I picked the Sox to win it all a few months earlier? Huh, what a laugh that was.

But one person who I have to give a lot of credit to is Eddie Andelman. Even though I do not like the sports opinions he has, I have to give him a lot of credit because he has been saying all along that the Pats were going to the Super Bowl. "Jambalaya" to you too, Eddie.

Anyway, I hope I am very wrong about this Sunday. Personally, I think it's going to be a terrific back-and-forth high scoring game ... that's only if Drew Bledsoe is on. I think the Pats can beat the Packers, but it won't come easy at all and the Pats can't just rely on Parcells. If Bledsoe is on and the defense plays like it has been, then perhaps this could become one of the better Super Bowl games to remember.

One final thought about Sunday and this is not to sound corny either - but I hope everyone out there is careful about drinking and driving - because if the Pats win, there will be a lot of celebrating going on. So please be careful.

Right now a little more than half of the high school winter sports season is over and between Wilmington and Tewksbury, there are many teams doing pretty well.

Wilmington has the ice hockey team, wrestling team and boys basketball teams all doing very well - and all three teams have many fine athletes on it and that of course it great to see. I think the ice hockey team and the boys basketball team can go pretty deep in the tournament, but only if they come to play every minute of every game.

And the wrestling team is enjoying the best season the program has ever had and they can win a Cape Ann League Title this Saturday at WHS if they can defeat both North Andover and Lynnfield in a four team meet that also features Tewksbury.

Speaking of Tewksbury, their wrestling team is also doing pretty well except they continue to battle with injuries - but if and when everyone is healthy, look for this team to do a lot of damage. The ice hockey team and the girls track team are also doing very well, while, the boys and girls hoop teams are coming a long way.

This is all really great, isn't it?

comes from baseball - my favorite sport. For me, I'm not too upset about the departure of Roger Clemens. Why? Because he is another phony athlete - how can he say that the Red Sox organization didn't treat him fairly? True, the "Duke" is not the most friendly and personal General Manager, but John Harrington already paid Clemens nearly 30 million dollars for his services and the Sox were offering another 25 million or so. Gee, Roger how can you say the Sox weren't not loyal to you?

What has happened to the Roberto Clementes of Baseball? Is Ryne Sandberg the only pure baseball player in baseball right now? It certainly seems that way.

College Notebook

Ava Gordinier, a sophomore at Wesleyan University in Middletown, Conn., and a resident of Wilmington, earned her second varsity letter in cross country at the college this fall, head coach Elmer Swanson announced recently.

Competing in each of the Cardinals' eight events during the 1996 season, Gordinier contributed to the team's scoring five in each race, hitting the tape as Wesleyan's number three finisher once, and number four finisher six times; the number five finisher once.

As a team, Wesleyan posted a 1-2 record in dual meets, defeating Amherst while losing to Williams and Trinity.

The team also placed fifth of 10 teams in the Amherst Invitational, fourth of 20 teams in the UMass Dartmouth invitational, fourth of seven squads in the Connecticut Intercollegiate Conference meet, 15th of 33 teams in the New England (all division) championship, eighth of 11 squads at the New England Small College Athletic Conference (NESCAC) meet and 12th of 33 teams in the New England Division III championship. At the New England Div. III meet, Gordinier placed 87th of 243 competitors.

The daughter of Marie Gordinier of 120 Lake St., Wilmington and the late Richard Gordinier, Gordinier is a 1995 graduate of Burlington High School where she lettered four times in cross country and served as a team co-captain twice. She also lettered in both indoor and outdoor track.

At Wesleyan, Gordinier is a member of the indoor track team this winter, having competed both indoors and outdoors during the 1995-96 season.

In other college notebook news, locals Randy Boyce of Tewksbury and Joe Cullen of Wilmington are currently splitting the duties between the pipes for the Bentley College Ice Hockey team.

Boyce stopped 21 shots in his last game and he has a 4.31 goals against average which ranks third in the ECAC Division. Cullen, on the other hand, made 39 saves in his most recent start.

Wrestling team needs two big wins on Saturday to clinch title

by Jamie Pote
Even though only half of the season is through, already the Wilmington High School wrestling team is enjoying its best season ever. And this past weekend, the first layer of icing was put on the cake - perhaps this upcoming weekend the final icing will be put on.

At 6-2 overall in the league, the wrestling team took a trip up to Mount Anthony High School in Bennington, Vermont this past weekend. Last year when they participated in this tourney, they took 9th overall place out of 11 teams. This weekend, however, they improved to 7th overall place as the team proved that they could take on some of the best wrestlers from around the area.

Head coach Mike Pimental, who was an All-American Wrestler at MAU in 1989, got the chance to take his troops to his former high school for the second consecutive year. Mount Anthony is the reigning eight time Vermont State Champions - and this weekend they were crowned the tourney champions as they had ten wrestlers (out of 15 weight classes) in the finals. Wilmington, on the other hand, had one.

However, Wilmington should not be ashamed at all. Actually, they should be very proud of what they accomplished. Last year Billy Tate and Mike O'Toole both placed fourth in their respective weight classes, and this weekend, Tate lost in the finals, while, Jamie Campbell swiped a third and both Sean Kerrigan and Rob Torrani took fourth places.

But Mount Anthony has a lot in common with Wilmington. When Pimental was a freshman there, his team barely won three dual meets all season - but the team kept progressing and by the time Pimental was a senior he was a major part of the first of eight consecutive state championships.

Wilmington, on the other hand, has been that way the last three years - barely getting two or three wins a season. Now, in Pimental's third year as head coach, the team has reeled off six wins and if they can beat both Lynnfield and North Andover this Saturday in a four team meet at WHS, they will control their own destiny of bringing home a Cape Ann League Title.

"I'm very happy with the way the kids wrestled," Pimental said. "Some of the guys did a lot better than they ever thought they could, while, I wished some of the other guys would realize what kind of talents they have as they could do so much better."

Pimental should be very proud of his troops and he said many times that he was. Pimental got the chance to coach across from his former coach John Legacy and his former teammate John Bushee, a two-time All-American, who is the head coach of Bunnell High School of Connecticut. Even though Legacy's team won the tourney, Wilmington finished one team ahead of Bunnell with its 58 overall team points.

Anyway, after nearly a three-hour trip that begun the first thing Saturday morning, little did the Cats know at that time, that the two-day trip would be another terrific moment to remember in this already super season.

After starting out slow with a couple of losses, Wilmington rebounded nicely. Starting at the 112 weight class, Paul Cheney continued to progress even though he lost two straight matches in the double elimination tourney. Cheney got pinned in his first match, but wrestled very well in his second as he lost to Matt Berenowitz of Kingston, New York, 10-4.

At 119, Dan Bonnell split going 2-2. After losing his first match 6-4, Bonnell came back to win his next two by scores of 4-3 and 10-2, before losing 8-6. Had Bonnell won his last one, he would have been wrestling for a third or fourth place finish.

Billy Tate at 130, was the lone member of the Cats squad to get into the finals. Tate had been 20-0 on the season and he had not been scored upon for over a month, which is pretty amazing. Anyway, Tate pinned his first opponent in just 48 seconds and he won a very good match 5-2 in the second round. But in the finals, Tate ran into a very good wrestler from Benton, Pennsylvania who beat Tate 16-0 on a Technical Fall.

"I think the loss might help Billy - hopefully it will. Now Billy knows where he is and he knows what he has to do to get where that kid is now," Pimental said.

Wilmington was without three of its wrestlers this weekend, due to injuries, sickness or what have you as Billy Harrison Mike Shelley and Tom Cassella all missed out and perhaps having them could have made a difference.

But as Shelley was out of the line-up that meant, Sean Sullivan and Ryan Clancy would both drop down a weight class. Sullivan wrestled at 135 and after losing a very tough opening round match, 11-8, Sullivan came back by pinning his next opponent in 36 seconds, before losing his second match by being pinned at the 4:40 mark. Clancy then wrestled at 140 and he was pinned in both of his matches, but the first year wrestler continued to improve after every match.

At 145, Greg Moran got a chance to show his wrestling skills and even though he lost two straight, the experience will help him. Rob Torrani, who lost his first match 17-10 and had the match gone another ten seconds or so he would have won it, was a nice surprise at 152. Torrani came back nicely after his first round loss with two consecutive wins before losing to Mike Cialella of Franklin, Mass, 6-2 for a battle of third place. Since Torrani lost the match, he finished fourth place which is very good.

Jamie Campbell moved down to 160 because of the absence of Harrison and Campbell wrestled an excellent tournament. After winning 15-0 in his first match, Campbell fell into the loser's bracket as he was pinned at the 1:59 mark. However, Campbell pinned his next opponent at the 4:20 mark, before beating Mike Grabowski of New Fairfield, Connecticut, 5-3 to take third place.

Joel McKenna got a chance to get some experience at the 171 weight class and even though he lost two straight, he did quite well.

Sean Kerrigan had a tremendous tourney as he beat his first round opponent by pinning him at the 1:26 mark. His next match came against the reigning fourth place finisher in the New England from MAU and he barely lost to him, 10-6. Kerrigan came back with a very quick pin, before losing to Stewart Ziehm of Cambridge, New York.

At the 215 weight class, Mike O'Toole went 1-2 with a 14-2 win sandwiched inbetween two losses by pins. However, O'Toole did fairly well considering he was giving up nearly 40 pounds every time he wrestled.

Finally, Brian Shea at the heavyweight division, was a pleasant bright spot. The first time wrestler had reeled off four consecutive wins and this weekend he added two more. After losing his first one, Shea came back with a pin at 2:27 and a 15-11 win. Shea was pinned by Tom Geiring of New Fairfield and had Shea beat him, he would have placed, also.

Pimental is already excited about this upcoming weekend as he is concentrating more on beating league opponents, rather than Tewksbury. But beating all three would be nice, too.

"This weekend is going to be very, very tough for us," said Pimental. "North Andover and Lynnfield are two very good teams. But I think this past weekend will really help us - we wrestled some great competition and when you do that you already make yourself better. Hopefully, the kids will strive for more success and we can win these two meets this weekend."

Pimental said if they do beat Lynnfield and North Andover in this meet along with Tewksbury starting at 1:00 at WHS, then they still have to beat Georgetown in February to bring home a CAL Title.

And if that happens, then maybe the Cushing Gymnasium will start to look like the MAU Gymnasium with all of its winning flags.

Ice Hockey team prevails with big win over Newburyport

by Jamie Pote
The Wilmington High School varsity ice hockey team kept up its amazing season thus far with two more victories this week including a 1-0 thriller over Newburyport on Saturday.

With its 8-1-2 overall record, including 6-0-1 in the Cape Ann League, the Cats will have another big game this Saturday when they play host to Masconomet. Masco, still with some of the fantastic LeColst players, has become a big rival for these Wildcats.

If Wilmington can beat Masconomet - on Saturday at Ristuccia Expo Center at 2:40 - then Wilmington will qualify for the state tournament for the third consecutive year. And most impressively, they will do so, before Feb. 1 - which is a pretty good feat to accomplish.

Anyway, last Saturday's game was terrific from the get-go, according to head coach Steve Scanlon. Danny Abbott got the lone goal of the game in the opening minutes when he fired a shot to the low inside post from a feed by sophomore Justin Vallas.

Newburyport, however, held a 1-0 shot advantage in the second period as Scanlon said both teams displayed outstanding defensive play and backchecking skills.

The third period was all Jason Dango. The Wilmington netminder earned his second shut out of the season when he turned away 16 of the Clippers 26 shots.

With Wilmington already short a man, Dennis Torpey got called for a penalty which lasted 9 minutes (illegal stick) and Wilmington had to fight off a 5-on-3 advantage for almost three minutes. And they did just that as many different players killed off the penalty - but most of the work was done by Dango who came up with several beautiful saves.

"That was by far Jason's best game of the season," said Scanlon. "He really stood on his head in the third period. We really needed this win. We proved that we could mix it up with the better teams - now we have to put in the same effort we did on Saturday towards every game."

Scanlon said besides Dango playing a real strong game, he thought his four defensemen Brian Farkas, Mike Berian, Kevin Considine and Brian Hermann also put in solid efforts.

"It was our best overall effort defensively all season. I thought the line of Dennis Torpey, Ryan Haubner and John Considine played their best two-way game all season long. I also thought Danny Abbott had a solid game," Scanlon said.

Scanlon said his squad has to put forth the same kind of effort especially when they play Masco this Saturday in what will be the first of two consecutive Saturday match-ups between the two clubs.

"Masco is an extremely explosive team - they are very hard to figure out," Scanlon said. "[Monday] they were behind 5-0 to Methuen and they came and tied them 6-6. They have also tied North Reading 6-6 and Lynnfield 5-5. They never quit - they always find ways to come back."

"We have to turn up another big performance, especially since we have a bigger rink. We need to backcheck like we did, get good performances from our defensemen and have Jason play like he can," Scanlon said.

Last Wednesday night, Wilmington crushed North Reading 9-1. Mark DiGiovanni and Justin Vallas led the team with two goals each. T.J. Flynn, Ryan Haubner, Dennis Torpey, Danny Abbott and Kevin Carroll all had single goals.

So as of right now, Wilmington is 24-5-2 over the past season and a-half.

Wildcat Boys Hoop team beat an 10-1 Tiger squad

by Jamie Pote
After suffering though some inconsistent play the last two weeks or so, the Wilmington High School boys basketball team started off a very tough week with a solid win over the 10-1 Ipswich Tigers, 53-47.

Now with their 7-4 overall record, the Cats need just three more wins to qualify for the state tournament. With two more home games this week against North Andover on Wednesday and Georgetown on Friday. Perhaps the goal of qualifying before Feb. 1 is not out of reach.

"Tonight we played 32 minutes of tough basketball," said a pleased Jim McCune. "Tonight we got after the loose balls and we played with the right intensity - it was one hell of a win for us."

Once again the team was led by Scott Swiezynski and Eric Clancy who combined for 37 of the team's 53 points. Clancy scored 13 of his points in the first half as the Cats held a 28-22 lead at the break after trailing 5-0 at the start.

But, in the second half, Swiezynski scored 13 of the team's 25 points. Also coming up big in the latter half were Dick Gillis with his 7 points (including a last second three-point bomb from way downtown) and Dennis Ingram who grabbed seven of his nine boards on the night.

"Tonight we started three juniors and a sophomore to go with Eric and we zeroed in on playing just eight players and it seemed to keep the continuity going," McCune said. "The kids did a good job, they were aggressive and they did a terrific job on the boards - and we really need to do that. Tonight we got that little extra that we have been searching for the entire season."

With their six point lead at the break, Ipswich was able to close it at one with about five minutes to play. Swiza increased the lead to three with a banker off the glass, and after a Dick Gillis lay-up, Ipswich cut it back down to three by hitting two freebies.

Now with about 90 seconds left to play, Ipswich had the ball in the Wilmington end for about a minute when both teams played a very sloppy minute of play. Ipswich missed about six shots, while none of the ten players could grab any of the rebounds or could they get control of the ball.

But that didn't hurt the Cats because when Ingram scored on a lay-up the Cats were ahead 50-45 with 17.3 seconds left in the game.

Ipswich added a two-pointer, and Dick Gillis put the exclamation point into the game with a long bomb just barely over the halfcourt line at the buzzer.

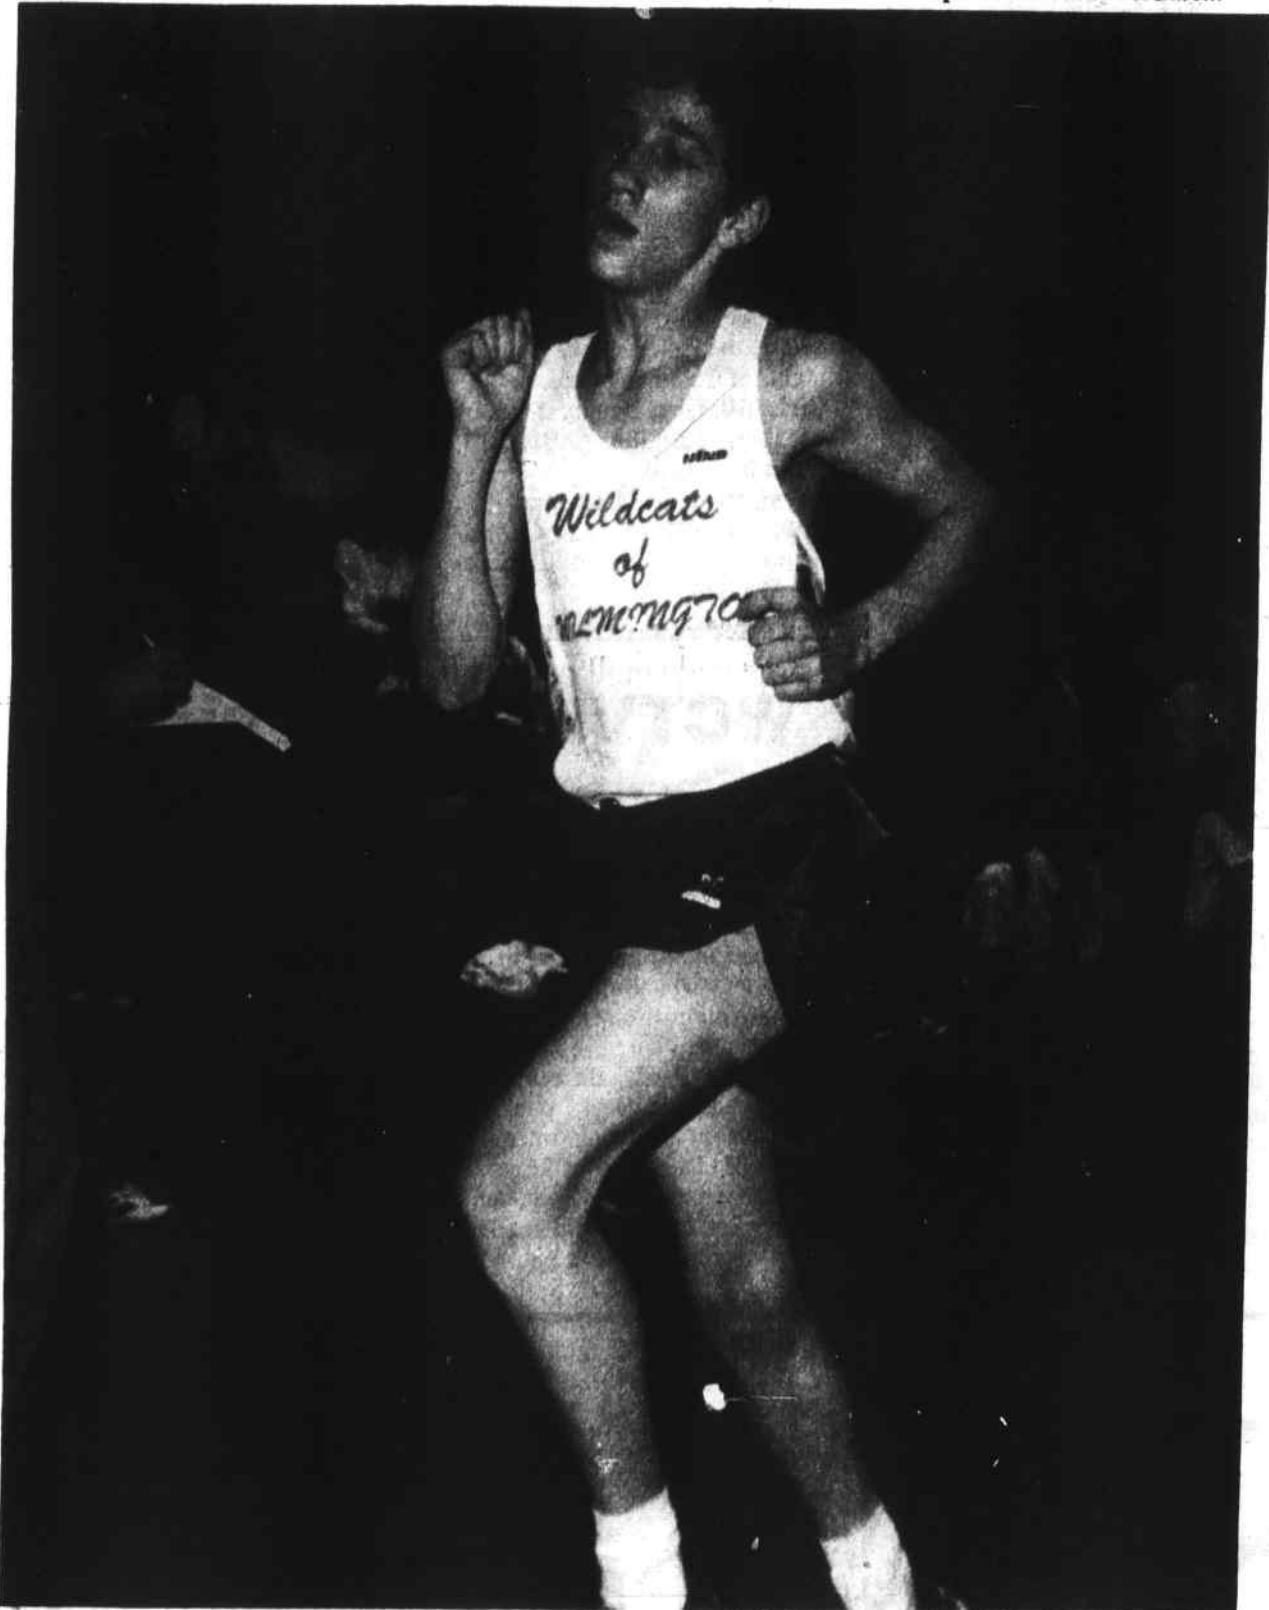

"Dickie had a big game. He might not be the best shooter, but he did a great job on the boards," McCune said.

Wilmington Box Score:

Swiezynski 9-16 3-5 21; Clancy 6-16 1-3 16; R. Gillis 3-7 0-0 7; Bates 2-5 0-0 4; Ingram 2-10 0-0 4; Thresher 0-1 1-2 1; T. Gillis 0-3 0-0; Arciero 0-4 0-0 0. Totals 22-62 5-11 53.

Rebounds: Wilmington 42 (Swiezynski 16, Ingram 9, T. Gillis 7).

Three-point goals: Clancy 3, R. Gillis 1.

ARE YOU PROTECTED?

by Edward H. Wilkens

EARTHQUAKE INSURANCE

QUESTION: Is earthquake insurance written differently depending upon how prone certain states are to the danger?

ANSWER: In earthquake-prone states, insurance is written under an endorsement to the Fire or homeowner's policy. It is generally subject to a deductible from 1% to 5% for dwellings and as high as 25% for commercial structures.

Earthquake insurance may be written without a deductible in states where the hazard is considered to be small. This may be written in a separate policy. If coverage is a fire insurance endorsement, any loss will be apportioned between insurers in proportion to the amount of fire insurance.

EARTHQUAKE INSURANCE is quite reasonable even though damage can be devastating.

Squirt B's have success in District Playdown Tournament

Wilmington's Squirt B hockey team, sponsored by Shea Concrete participated in the district 210 Playdown Tournament held this weekend in Cambridge.

Wilmington's results were two 5-1 games; beating Cambridge in their first round match, but dropping the second round game to a fast skating Wakefield team.

The Wildcats stormed into the tourney looking great in their Saturday morning game with the host team from Cambridge. Wilmington's Steve Emery fired a crisp shot to the far corner to score only a minute and a half into the game after a nice pass from defenseman Richie Buckley. Jay Surianello added another goal on a slick wrist shot from the slot with only a couple of seconds left in the first period. Assisting on this goal were Jay's linemates Kevin Velardo and Jackie Rideout.

There were no Wilmington goals in the second period, but the team played some super defense in front of Wildcat goalies Matt David and Dean Smith. The Wildcat defensive lineup of Eddie Lopez, Richie Buckley, Jennifer Corcoran, Marshall Nevins, Joey Pino and Jimmy Fitzpatrick were all looking sharp, allowing only one Cambridge goal.

Wilmington right winger Eric Ollila scored on a blazing wrist shot through a screen in front of the Cambridge net at 3:14 of the third and final period. Ollila's linemates Steve Emery and Bryant Buck earned assists on this goal.

Only two minutes later Ollila was again in action in front of the Cambridge goal, this time lifting a backhand shot into the twine after a Bryant Buck rebound. The last goal of the game was notched on a great shot from the left faceoff circle by defenseman Marshall Nevins, with an assist going to Ollila.

The Squirts had a tougher time on Sunday morning when they played an excellent team from Wakefield. The Wildcats skated hard, but couldn't quite catch up to the Wakefield squad who won the game 5-1. Kevin Velardo notched the one goal for the Cats on a great shot from just outside of the crease after a Jay Surianello rebound.

Wildcat netminding duties were shared by Matt David and Dean Smith, who both performed well, but Wakefield's attack was relentless. Also trying to help out in their own end with some good forechecking for Wilmington were forwards Bobby Sinopoli, Mike O'Connor, Bryant Buck and Jackie Rideout.

Wilmington's Eric Ollila and Edzo Tucker had several good rushes but were "stonewalled" by some great defense and a couple of outstanding glove saves by the Wakefield goalie.

Coach Joe Surianello said that the team showed some good effort in a tourney that always attracts a lot of quality hockey teams.

The Squirt B's next home game is scheduled for 6 p.m. Sunday, at the Ristuccia Exposition Center in Wilmington when they will face off against North Middlesex in a Valley League contest...Go Wildcats!!

Mite C's suffer tough one

The Wilmington Mite C youth hockey team suffered a tough loss to Beverly, 4-2 in a game that was well played by both teams.

The first period saw the Cats front line of Derek DeRosa, Vin See and Andrew Fish put pressure on Beverly goalie, but could not score. Beverly scored at the end of the first period despite good defense by Eric DeDomenico and Derek Griffin in front of goalie Jim Murray.

In the second period the passing of Rich LaVita, Dan Silva and Ralph Newhouse provided some good chances to score but the Beverly goalie could not be beaten.

Down 2-0 at the start of the third period a nice pass from Brian Garrett to Kyle Able to Shyne Pellerin who scored to make the score 2-1 and give the Cats a lift.

Wilmington came down nice in a rush by Derek DeRosa who passed to Brad Frasier for the goal to tie the game. Late in the third period Beverly scored two goals to seal their victory 4-2 in this well played contest.

RUSSIAN GENERAL LIEUTENANT ALEKSANDR ALEKSANDROVICH LITVINOV

We want to leave people with a warm feeling for the Russian people

By DOUG WOOD-BOYLE

Since 1992 the Town of Wakefield has been hosting a group of people for one day visits that are part of a program designed to bring better understanding between the military of two countries that were once at a tenuous peace with each other.

Over 100 generals, admirals and cosmonauts from the Russian Federation (formerly members of the Soviet Armed Forces) have visited the Town and reportedly have taken that visit back to their homeland as an integral part of their memories of the United States.

According to the words of Major General Vladimir Mikhailovich Vetrov, the feeling of warmth will continue with the 21 generals, admirals and cosmonauts that visited on Saturday.

Through an interpreter, Gen. Vetrov, of the Ministry of Defense, said, "I will always warmly remember my visit to Wakefield."

He also expressed his hopes that the people of the community understand that the United States and the Russian Federation are no longer bitter enemies and said that this trip will help him to remember that in the future.

The trip to Wakefield is the third one since General John Galvin (U.S. Army, retired), dean of the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Tuft's University first asked a group of friends to put it together in 1992. It is done in conjunction with Harvard University's Kennedy School of Government's "Executive Program for General Officers of the Russian Federation and the United States."

General Gregory Govan, the chairperson of the program said that this is the sixth year of the program.

"It started with the Soviets on the initiative of some far thinking people in Soviet times."

One of those far thinking people is former Ambassador Robert Blackwell who is the founder of the program. Under Amb. Blackwell the grants were written and the program was based on a similar program at Harvard for senior government officials and diplomats.

Program Director Erin Klett said, "The program fosters communication between two military elites."

For the first time American generals and admirals have been a part of both the program as a whole and the visit to Wakefield.

Klett said, "The program is definitely much improved with the full participation of the American generals."

Rear Admiral John Paddock (United State Naval Reserve) said, "This fits well with my belief which is with the Crisis Action Team for the U.S. Military Command in Europe. Understanding is a necessary part of the job."

Adm. Paddock added, "Many of these people we would not get to meet in the normal course of work."

"Many of them do not get to meet among themselves."

General Govan said "This is the first year for the American participation. It was a Russian idea to get to talk with their counterparts."

Govan said, "Maybe we still won't agree but they will understand, why we do things, a little better."

The local visit shows a lot of the pride that Dean Galvin has in his native community.

"I told the Russian leaders that this would be an opportunity to get with ordinary people of the town, of which I consider myself one, and talk freely throughout the day," Galvin said during a presentation at the breakfast that started the day.

"Once the Russians have seen Wakefield," Galvin said in an interview, "I think they have a better idea of what America really is."

"You can't go away from Wakefield without loving it."

The previous two trips were conducted in the summer, as this one was supposed to be (Russian political turmoil delayed this trip). In the past many more people have been present on the streets of Wakefield to greet the Russians and stop to talk with them.

What do you see behind a person's smile? We can't see but only hope that behind that smile there's a warm, gentle, compassionate heart.

Exercise classes for expectant mothers

Wellness during and after pregnancy comes from the right balance of proper exercise, good nutrition, emotional support and stress reduction. Body In Balance, a health and exercise class for expectant and new mothers, offers all of these important concepts.

Designed for women in their fourth month of pregnancy or more, Body In Balance: Prenatal meets Tuesdays and Thursdays from 6-7 pm, beginning February 4. The program is offered by Melrose-Wakefield and Whidden Memorial Hospitals, and will be held at the Dutton Center, 1117 Main Street in Wakefield

The course has four components: exercise, nutritional advice, breathing and relaxation techniques, and emotional support. Each class begins with a series of stretching and toning exercises to help each woman develop and maintain good muscle support and proper alignment throughout their pregnancy.

Heart rates are carefully monitored to ensure safety for both mother and fetus. After the exercise period, participants rest on floor mats and engage in group discussion on subjects such as nutritional requirements during pregnancy, the financial aspects of having a child, wives' tales, and prioritizing once the baby arrives.

Body In Balance: Mom and Baby Exercise will meet on Monday mornings for four weeks from 9:30 am to 11:30 am, beginning February 3. The program will be held in the B Level Conference Room at Whidden Memorial Hospital, 104 Garland St., Everett.

For fees and registration, please call the Childbirth Education Department, at 617-979-3408.

Breast cancer awareness program

Breast cancer is the second most common cancer among women surpassed only by lung cancer and is a major focus for the American Cancer Society. The Society's Northeast Region has planned several educational programs to encourage women to go for regular early detection check-ups. For questions and answers about breast cancer, call the American Cancer Society Northeast Regional Office at 508-988-3600 x232.

Breast cancer is the most commonly diagnosed form of cancer among women in the United States. 184,300 new invasive cases of breast cancer was estimated among women in the United States for 1996. 1,400 new cases of breast cancer diagnosed for men in 1996 was estimated. While there is no known way to prevent breast cancer, there are signs and symptoms for women to be aware of. Breast changes, such as a lump, thickening, swelling, dimpling, skin irritation, distortion, retraction, scaliness, pain tenderness of the nipple or nipple discharge.

About The Towns by Phyllis Nissen

'Born, raised and educated' in Woburn

"Frederick V. Gilgun, 69, presiding justice of the Woburn District Court will retire on January 31, bringing to a close his 45 years in the Massachusetts Court system," notes the Woburn edition of the "Daily Times Chronicle."

"His retirement is classified as an early retirement as he does not reach the mandatory retirement age of 70 until next October.

"The jurisdiction of the Woburn Court encompasses the city of Woburn with the towns of Winchester, Burlington, Stoneham, Reading, Wilmington, and North Reading.

"Born, raised and educated in Woburn, Judge Gilgun launched his court career in 1952, just seven years out of Woburn High School and service with the U.S. Navy as a Court Officer appointed by Judge William H. Henchey.

"Since that time, he completed his education in the field of law at Suffolk Law School, became a member of the Massachusetts Bar, and conducted a successful law practice.

"Since his initial appointment to the Court system, he spent 15 years in the juvenile division as a special juvenile probation officer serving several courts, including Woburn, Concord, Framingham, Natick, Marlboro, and Ayer, and later became Chief Probation Officer of the Woburn District Court.

"Appointed Clerk-Magistrate of the Woburn Court by Governor Endicott Peabody in 1964, he remained at that post until his appointment as a judge by Governor Edward J. King in 1980.

"During his interview process before the Governor's Council it was pointed out that few judges could lay claim to such a court background as Gilgun had.

"Judge Gilgun became First Justice, or presiding justice of the Woburn District Court in 1994 to succeed Judge Francis P. Cullen, who retired at that time after 30 years on the Woburn bench...."

A $10,000 boost

"By a 3-1 vote..., the Stoneham Board of Selectmen gave Town Administrator Jeffrey Nutting a $10,000 raise covering the past two years," notes the "Stoneham Independent."

School Notes

by Phyllis Nissen

'The principal of the thing'

Striding right

"In recent years, the Memorial School community has fought for equity for its school, and some strides have been made," notes the Burlington edition of the "Daily Times Chronicle."

"And earlier this year, morale problems developed between teachers at the school and its then-principal, Jacqueline Kearns. Kearns was subsequently reassigned."

"Call this the baggage inherited by Robert Teel, who has been principal at the school for the last three months; Teel, however, says he is settling into his job nicely and has felt no residual effects from those issues."

"We have to understand we're all human, we make mistakes," said Teel, who is the Memorial's third principal in five years.

"But we should work through them and move ahead," Teel continued. "What matters is what is ahead. Dealing with the past doesn't accomplish anything."

"It sounds like a cliché," Teel said, "but that's the way I am."

'Warm and sensitive'

"Teel was hired in August and School Supt. Robert Neely described him as 'warm and sensitive' and 'able to work with people and bring them together,'" continues the Burlington edition of the "Daily Times Chronicle."

"Critical qualities, at least based on what happened with the teachers and Kearns, when a facilitator was brought in to mediate disputes."

"Asked about this, Teel said he has experienced no such problems."

"I have no feelings about it," said Teel. "I'm not exactly sure what happened...The things that happened had nothing to do with my situation."

"Besides, he says he really likes his job."

"It is a great school and a great community," said Teel, as he sat at his desk. "It is a wonderful staff, very knowledgeable, and they welcomed me with open arms."

"These are people who care about children and care about each other," Teel continued. "The kids are really wonderful and there are good parents. There have been hardly any disciplinary problems at all."

"Teel said he has been involved with education for 26 years."

'Youngest administrator ever'

"He (Burlington Principal Robert Teel) is a veteran of the field in North Shore Communities; he was in Gloucester for 22 years and was the youngest administrator ever in that town," continues the Burlington edition of the "Daily Times Chronicle."

"Teel taught second grade initially, then taught a multi-age group (grades three, four and five) in Gloucester."

"He had a brief stint as a second grade teacher in Kensington, N.H., then moved on to Beverly, where he was a principal up until last year."

"Teel has a master's degree in Education from Boston State and an undergraduate degree from UMass-Boston."

Presentation on learning styles

"Adapting to Multiple Learning Styles: classroom strategies that work!" will be presented on Wednesday, January 29th at 7:30 p.m. in the Winchester Room at Town Hall by Betsy D'Alelio, M.Ed. Mrs. D'Alelio is a Primary Learning Center Teacher and Consulting Teacher of Reading in the Winchester Public Schools. The presentation will offer a review of instructional support strategies that meet the needs of diverse learners, while fostering a climate of success within at-risk learners, and has recently compiled "Curriculum Connections for All Students" - a handbook in conjunction with Lesley College's Summer Institute. A question and answer period will follow the presentation. This event is free, open to the community at large and is sponsored by the Winchester Parent Advisory Committee on Special Education (PAC). Woodchips From S-1 said, "The 'Pound Cake' is 16 ounces."

Dennis Tully stopped his car and asked a pretty young lady waiting at a bus stop, "Do you want a ride cutie?" "Are you going North?" she demurely asked. "Yes I am," Dennis excitedly shouted. "Good!" she shouted back, "Give my regards to the Eskimos!"

There are special retirement homes for people of many occupations, like - Mailmen who have lost their 'zip,' Plumbers who are 'drained' out, Auto Muffler installers who feel 'exhausted,' Gardeners who wet their 'plants' and one for writers who think up stupid jokes like these.

Brian McCarthy of Kelly's said that there's a new ice cream sold at Kelly's Kremer named after the Woodchipper. It's called Tutti Fruiti.

There are two contests I will hold soon. One is for the most Beautiful Bar-maid and the other for the Ugliest Bartender.

Blackie Vega won last year and I came in second.

Kathy puts on so much cold cream and body oil she Slides out of bed every morning.

I found out if you have one child you're a 'parent.' If you have two or more you are a 'Referee.'

Anyone who can swallow a pill while drinking from a water cooler deserves to get well.

Folks, life is 'Fragile,' please handle it with 'Prayer.'

Kathy sings in the church choir. The members went on a deep-sea fishing trip last summer and when a storm came up, two sopranos were nearly Lost on the High-C's.

My Aunt Nora shouted up the stairway, "Get Up Johnny or you will be late for school!" Her son shouted back, "I'm not going to school!" She rushed upstairs and asked, "are you sick?" "No." "Then give me two reasons why you don't want to go to school?" "The kids all hate me and the teachers hate me too. Now Ma, you give me two reasons why I should get up and go to school."

Aunt Nora pulled the bed-sheets off and shouted, "reason one - you're 49 years old and reason two - you're the Principal!"

I remember when Paul Archbold, wearing a hard hat, rang my doorbell. Paul then said to me, "Woodchipper, will you please tell Kathy to practice her singing tonight. My crew is installing a new water line on the street and my men have stopped working three times thinking they heard the coffee break whistle!"

I said to Dennis Tully, "I just heard that your great grandmother died." "Yeah," Dennis replied, "and to think that I spent the last five years pretending that I loved her cats so that she would remember me in her will." "Really!" I said. "Tell me Dennis, what did she leave you?" "Five, stinking cats!" Dennis shouted.

Carmine Zaccaria once boasted that he drove a car for 20 years and was never bothered by a back seat driver. "That's amazing," Richie Rebidue declared. "How did you manage to be so lucky?" Carmine smiled and said "I drove a hearse."

Folks, have you answered your phone and heard someone trying to sell you something like vinyl siding, kitchen cabinets or aluminum windows?

Well, some 'eager beaver' stock broker was trying to sell my Aunt Nora a sure fire stock. After calling every night for a week and getting a 'not interested' answer, the stock broker said, "Buy this stock, I guarantee it will triple in value in ten years."

"Look here Sonny," Aunt Nora exclaimed, "I'm 89 years old, I don't even buy green bananas!"

Jimmy Bruce was mowing the lawn on a hot day last summer when a large moving van backed up to his front door. "We've come to take your piano away, you are behind two payments," Jimmy called his lovely wife Carol aside and said, "I thought I gave you the money, what happened?" Carol smiled and explained, "Jimmy, I have the money right here. I'll give it to the men when they get the piano down from the second floor to the livingroom downstairs where I want it now."

Beginning January 30, The Brandeis University Theater Arts Department will be hosting the New England Regional Finals of the American College Theater Festival. Chosen by New England area judges, some of the area's top notch university productions will be traveling to Brandeis for judging by the Festival national judges, and possible showcasing in Washington, D.C., in the Spring.

All performances will take place in The Beigel Theater at the Spingold Theater Center in Waltham.

The Boys Next Door is described as a funny, intense and poignant story of four mentally impaired men and their young and often worn-out social worker. Presented by Colby-Sawyer College, the performance takes place on Thursday, January 30 at 8pm.

Written by Sharon Pollack, Blood Relations is a moving story of Lizzie Borden, a young girl who is overwhelmed by a society disdainful of individuality and eccentricities. Living in New England in the Victorian age, Lizzie works to overcome the overwhelming pressures society and family put upon her. The play provides an understanding of the occurrences leading up to the grim murders of her parents, Andrew and Abigail. Presented by Stonehill College, the performance takes place on Friday, January 31 at 8pm.

play which has sometimes been referred to as immoral or amoral, even though it may be Shakespeare's most Christian of works. Directed by Edward Isser, the story is about how political, economic and sexual powers can meet with disastrous results when leaders violate their position for personal advancement. Presented by the College of the Holy Cross, the performance takes place on Saturday, February 1, at 8pm.

FREE EVENING OF HEART HEALTHY TIPS

Preventing heart disease, identifying coronary risk factors and recognizing angina/chest pains should be a high priority for men and women of all ages.

Statistics tell us that over 70 million Americans of all ages have one or more forms of heart or blood vessel disease, and cardiovascular disease remains our nation's biggest killer, responsible for 43% of all deaths.

Statistics also tell us that heart disease can be prevented and effectively treated with a combination of high-tech medicine and healthy lifestyle choices. Those interested in beating the nation's number one killer, are urged to join Melrose-Wakefield Hospital Cardiologist Bruce Watrous, M.D. and the professionals of the MWH Cardiac Rehabilitation Services on Thursday, February 20, when they present a free, community program, titled, Take It To Heart.

Mulholland Sextet at Full Cup

The Full Cup Coffeehouse is proud to present the Joe Mulholland Sextet on Saturday, Jan. 25, at 8pm. The Joe Mulholland Sextet is a versatile contemporary jazz ensemble that has been exciting audiences for years.

Joe Mulholland, the bands founder and leader, is on the faculties of Berklee College of Music and the New England Conservatory. The group takes the best of mainstream jazz and updates it through original compositions and fresh arrangements; the ensemble interplay and fiery solos never fail to leave an audience asking for more.

The Joe Mulholland Sextet has released 2 CDs, "Speaking for Myself" in 1992 and "Second Sight" in the spring of 1996. They have played at clubs around the country including such local favorites at Sculler's, The Willow's, The Regatta Bar, and The Hasty Pudding Jazz Club. Drawing on the rich musical tradition of jazz, the sextet creates a wide variety of moods including tunes that stomp, groove, soothe and make you feel great. The front line of trumpet, alto sax, and trombone provide a rich, driving ensemble voice propelled by a high-octane rhythm section.

The performance begins at 8pm and tickets are $9. The doors open at 7:30pm. The Full Cup Coffeehouse is located in the parish hall of All Saint's Episcopal Church, 79 Central Street, Stoneham. Coffee, tea, and desserts are available. The Full Cup Coffeehouse is a smoke free, wheelchair accessible environment. For ticket outlets and further information please call 617-279-2039.

THE JOE MULHOLLAND SEXTET is appearing at the Full Cup Coffeehouse in Stoneham on Saturday, January 25th at 8 p.m.

Health care training

The Health Care Training Department of the American Red Cross is offering a Nurse Assistant/Home Health Aide Training course in the Peabody office beginning January 27 and running through March 20. The fee for this program is $495.

Limited scholarships are available for mature individuals who are striving to return to the work force and have an interest in the health care field.

After successfully completing the program, persons will receive two certificates, one for Nurse Assistant and one for Home Health Aide.

Russian visitors

From 5-1 over the weekend, the streets were not crowded with shoppers and strollers. However, the Russians did get to meet people in two of the local shops and during a period of bowling in the afternoon.

The tour included a trip to Hart's Hardware and Smith's Drugstore. The visitors had many questions of the shop owners and the clerks and were very interested in the number of items available to the American public.

Galvin said, "It is a tremendous credit to the town that so many people would turn out. It shows that Wakefield cares about outside interests as well."

Russian Delegation Head General Lieutenant Aleksandr Aleksandrovich Litvinov said, "We want to see a cross section of American life and how a small town is run, how small town people manage their own lives."

He added, "We want to leave people with warm feelings of the Russian people."

Although the tour only included a walk by of the Police Department, during the tour, traffic was held up on Yale Avenue as many of the Russian visitors spent time having their pictures taken with Patrolman Joseph Conway who escorted the bus that carried the Russian and American visitors on parts of the tour.

Areas of interest also included

NURSE ASSISTANTS are required to have a TB. test done prior to start of class.

TO REGISTER If you have a High School diploma or GED from the United States you may register with a credit card by calling 375-0700, Ext. 272, 235, or 221. If you do not have a diploma or GED you must pass a reading test.

ed a trip to the Fire Department, where Chief David Parr was kept busy explaining the type of equipment he works with, and the size of the department. Questions were also asked about the number and types of calls that were answered.

At the William J. Lee Memorial Town Hall, Executive Secretary/Town Administrator Thomas Butler was inundated with questions about the operation of the community and his role as an appointed official.

As in the past, the Russians have shown a great fascination with American cars. This year was no different as two of the visitors jumped at a chance to ride in a Cadillac owned by one of the Galvin Committee members, Richard Bayrd.

The Galvin Committee coordinates all of the activities in Wakefield and Bayrd establishes the itinerary for the day.

"I look at a number of spots that we would like them to visit, and bring the suggestions back to the committee for their approval," Bayrd explained.

A new stop on the trip this year was Liberty Chevrolet, where the visitors were given a guided tour of the showroom, repair shop and parts department for both the dealership and adjoining Power Products Inc., which specializes in diesel engine repairs.

During the breakfast, the Russian generals and admirals were presented with gifts of Levi's jeans, a western belt and buckle, a Stetson hat and a string tie with an American Eagle slide. The presentation was made by Gerald Scott for his company, the Wall Street Forum.

While trying on their hats one Russian General was heard to quip, "These will become part of the Russian military uniform."

Another Russian officer presented Scott with a pamphlet containing pictures of Russian missiles and said, "I hope the only one of our rockets like this that you see is in this book."

Scott is a 20-year veteran of the Air Force Reserve and holds the rank of major. He has already reaped some rewards from these visits as he has been able to travel to Russia and has hosted the daughter of one of the generals while she attended college for six months in this country.

This is just one small way that the lines of communication are opened between powerful military forces and it is a way to a world of peace.

Viewful unit at the Greens

Beware when you drive into well known townhouse complex, The Greens, because you are about to fall in love! Follow the winding roads, and take a glance at the gorgeous, well kept grounds as golfers surround you, as well as peaceful scenery. Once you pull up to this unit, you will know that this is a place to truly call home, yet feel like you're living at a resort 365 days a year.

Walk up your brick walkway to the front door, and be prepared to be mesmerized. The stunning foyer, well lighted by a hanging ceiling fixture and bright tiling, leads you to the small hallway to your kitchen. To your left is a half bath with ceramic tile, and a laundry center with shelving and to your right are sliding doors. Enter into a super kitchen with a large picture window, so the sun can soak in. Enjoy staring out this window at the stunning greens while reading the Sunday newspaper and sipping on coffee. Cook up delicious meals in this room which boasts Euro cabinets for a tasteful contemporary look. If you're cooking for guests, seat them in your formal dining room with newer wall to wall carpeting, which is located right off the kitchen. This room is lit up with a lovely chandelier. Once dinner is completed, have your guests retire to the living room, which is right off the dining room for coffee and dessert by the fireplace. This room boasts newer wall to wall carpeting as well, and is super bright from the sun beaming through the sliding glass doors. Sliding doors are accessible from the dining room and the living room which leads to a Florida room. Perfect for lounging and watching the golfers at the second fairway, this room sports parquet flooring and lots of sunshine. Off this room is yet a second set of sliders, which leads to a porch. Perfect for barbecuing and sun bathing, this porch is ideal in the summertime.

Going back inside and through the living room, off the foyer is a set of stairs that have newer carpeting. Off to the left is a large guest bedroom which has a grand closet with sliding white doors. Your guests have their very own full bathroom! Off to the left of the guest bedroom is the master bedroom with views of the greens. There is a super closet in this bedroom with sliders as well. To the left is the entrance to the full bath which also has a super closet in it and vanity area with large mirror. Through the next set of doors is the bathroom. Just outside of the master bedroom is a linen closet.

Heading downstairs, back to the foyer, there is a door to the right hand side leading to the basement. Partially finished, this basement has extreme potential. All of the materials needed to complete the basement come with the unit, all it takes is a little time and imagination to make this room into a great entertaining area or playroom for the kids. There is also plenty of room for storage.

This townhouse also features a garage with electric door opener which has a full attic area for storage. There is also a newer heat pump and hot water heater. In addition, there is no need to worry about maintenance - it is all taken care of, which includes shoveling and groundskeeping. Your fee also includes a social membership to the Thomson Country Club which means hours of golf for the lovers of the sport, as well as swimming and tennis.

North Reading is conveniently located 218 miles north of Boston and only minutes to Routes 128 and 93, North Reading has an approximate population of 12,200 citizens. There is public transportation available to Boston from Reading, Wilmington and Wakefield, which all surround North Reading. There are five public schools which include three elementary, one junior high and one high school. North Reading also offers classes for the handicapped and evening courses for adults. For the children in the family, there are four playgrounds with supervised summer programs, six tennis courts, two soccer fields, three basketball courts and baseball fields. Activities for all to enjoy include fishing in the Ipswich River, camping and picnicking at nearby Harold Parker State Forest and a public swimming pool at Martin's Pond. There is also a public skating rink close by.

Marsha Weiss of Re/Max Top Achievers, Inc. is the listing agent and marketing agent for this fabulous unit at The Greens. She has been a resident of "The Greens" for over ten years, and can answer any questions regarding the unit or the area. She is offering it at an unbeatable price of $214,900. Re/Max donates to Children's Network

Re/Max Top Achievers in Reading recently presented a check to the Children's Miracle Network in the amount of $6,000 to benefit Children around Massachusetts with Birth Defects. Pam Spitzer of the Children's Miracle Network accepted the check on Wednesday, November 6. Otherwise known as the Genesis Fund, The Children's Miracle Network is a non-profit organization which raises money to provide funding for the care and treatment for children born with defects, mental retardation and genetic diseases.

Re/Max Top Achievers has been raising funds for the Children's Miracle Network for over three years. Through the support received during this past summer's Gold tournament and the increase in Re/Max Top Achievers market share over the past year, as a donation is made to the Genesis Fund for each Real Estate Transaction, Re/Max was able to triple their donation over last year. One of the main reasons for the golf tournament's success was the strong support and extraordinary efforts received from all the brokers in the office, particularly Mary-Ann Macaione.

The team at Re/Max Top Achievers hope to go above and beyond this year's donation and raise twice as much in 1997. The Charity Golf Tournament is scheduled for June 9, 1997 at the Thomson Country Club.

Circa 1790

A blend of old and new

The quiet of the country mixes with the closeness to all major shopping centers and attractions in this North Reading home. This perfect blend of old and new is a true "antique colonial". The original house was built circa 1790 and has been extensively refurbished with newer additions, and keeps the essence of the colonial period. Distinctive at first sight, this home has the ultimate in curb appeal.

Our tour begins with the spacious rustic kitchen, ideal for holiday entertaining with its wide pine floors, full brick wall with fireplace, built in gas grill, custom cabinetry and new appliances. Conveniently located off of the kitchen is the half bath with oak vanity and new ceramic tile floor.

Step down into the over-sized livingroom which features wide pine floors, true divided light boxed bay windows and various built-ins, plus a quaint and inviting stairway to the second level and you can see why this home is so inviting.

The first bedroom at the top of the stairs has a new wall to wall carpet with pine floors under, built in custom pine furniture, antique wood ceiling and an atrium door leading to a wrap around deck.

The guest bath is brand new with double sink vanity and oak floor. Another bedroom has rich pine custom built-in bureaus and hard wood under the wall to wall carpets.

This 1790's residence has appointments for buyers of the 1990's. The master bedroom bath is new with oak floor, bidet, and a shower with seat and steam unit. The master bedroom boasts a new walk in closet and newly mirrored additional closet space.

The laundry is also located on this floor with extensive cabinets and counters. The hallway from the bedroom area leads up carpeted stairs to the walk-up fully finished attic which is perfect for an additional bedroom, playroom or exercise area.

full shed for storage.

Enjoy your breakfast at the custom built bar with sink. Adjacent to this is an office and door which leads to the 26x36", 3 car attached garage and double lofts which are perfect for auto buffs, tradesmen or studio potential.

The other features are a three zoned heating system,

THIS 37 FOOT SOLARIUM boasts five skylights, side windows, and a custom wet-bar, creating a wonderful greenhouse feeling. Atrium doors lead to a private patio and yard.

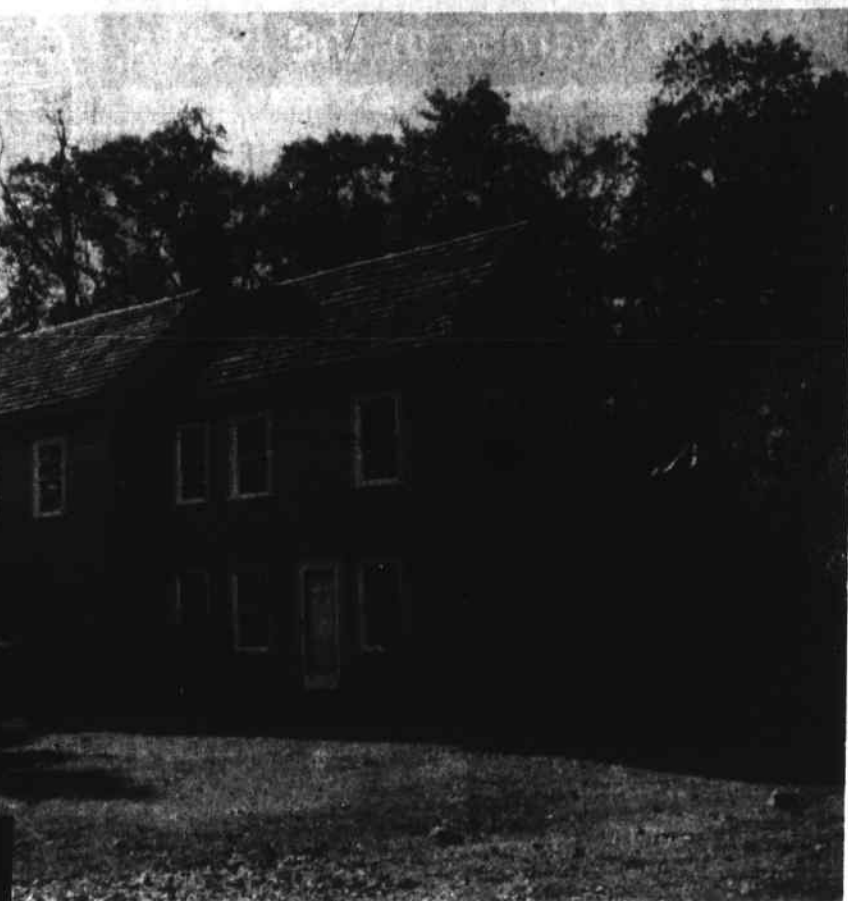

Heading back down the stairway you are led to double French doors with stairs leading to the beautiful familyroom/solarium which spans a 37 foot long area. The room is highlighted with 5 skylights, natural woodwork, recessed lighting and an atrium door which leads to a well manicured, tiered private yard with brick patio and wood shingled roof, new Anderson thermopane windows, and new septic system.

You can even walk to North Reading's historical center of town, library and schools or bike to the new $3.4 million Ipswich River Park. This is a charmingly old yet new home with a very unique flavor of its own.

ALTHOUGH THE ORIGINAL HOUSE is Circa 1790, it has been newly renovated, including Anderson Thermopanes. Amenities include a walk up attic and a three-car garage. Second floor master bath includes specialty shower, bidet, and steam unit.

Middlesex East Sports Athletes & Activities

BY PAUL FEELY

For fans of high school football, it's never too early to start thinking about the next season. With that in mind here's some news that many fans have probably been waiting for.

The Massachusetts High School Football Coaches Association recently announced the two coaching staffs for the 19th annual Shriners High School All-Star Football Classic, which will be played at Boston University's Nickerson Field on Saturday, June 14, with kick-off set for 7:30 pm.

Coaching for the North team are Everett High School's John DiBiao, who will serve as head coach, while his assistants will be Lynn Classical's Dave Dempsey, Narragansett's Tom DiGeronimo, Concord-Carlisle's Dick Kerr, Austin Prep's Bill Maradei, and Watertown's Paul McGovern.

Xaverian's Charles Stevenson will serve as head coach for the South team, while his assistants will be Nashoba Regional's Tom Woods, Randolph's Jeff Perkins, South Boston's Steve Flaherty, Stoughton's Greg Burke, and West Attleboro's Clifford Stevenson.

All proceeds from this event will go to the support of the Shriners Hospitals for Children in North America, where any child, regardless of race, color or creed may receive quality hospital and medical care, at absolutely no cost to the parents, third-party payers or the government.

SPORTS SHORTS

MIDDLESEX EAST SPORTS WEEKLY TRIVIA QUESTION: Who was the first famous athlete to have his number retired by his team? Answer appears elsewhere in this column.

•The UMass-Dartmouth men's basketball team recently defeated Brandeis University 84-71, and Reading's TIM NELSON played a big part in the win by pouring in 12 points. He was two for four on shots outside the three-point line in the game.

•Tewksbury Girls Softball is currently seeking and accepting applications for coaches for the travel teams. Anyone interested in applying for one of the five teams (ages 10, 12, 14, 16, 18 and under) should call Bill Surran at 658-7472.

•Need some clues to help out with the above-mentioned trivia question? You might think it was Babe Ruth, but it wasn't (though you have the right team).

•Woburn's ERIN HENNESSEY, who played soccer this fall for Tufts University as a sophomore, has been named to the All New England Women's Soccer Division III second team. She also played soccer while attending Woburn High School.

•North Reading's BRIAN MCAULIFFE has been having an outstanding year on the varsity hockey team. As a senior he has recorded 28 points thus far this season for the Hornets, on 17 assists and 11 goals.

•The New England Mariners AAU/Junior Olympic baseball team is holding its Winter Baseball Camp during February school vacation week in Orlando, Florida. The camp includes round trip airfare, seven nights hotel accommodations, baseball instruction and activities, transportation, trips to Disney World, a collegiate baseball game between Florida Southern and Michigan, and an NBA game between the Orlando Magic and Denver Nuggets. For more information call 508-777-4507.

•Take two minutes for a good cause and have your picture taken in the original penalty box from the old Boston Garden at the New England Sports Museum. The box is on loan from former Bruin Terry O'Reilly, and fans can have their picture taken while sitting in it.

•A scholarship will soon be established to honor the memory of the late Nickolas Martinho of North Reading. Martinho was a 1961 graduate of North Reading High School who loved all sports and played semi-professional football in Lowell. Memorial contributions may be made to the North Reading High School Scholarship Fund, attention Athletic Director Roy Condon, Park Street, North

Reading, 01864. The contributions will be used to establish the Nickolas Martinho Athletic Scholarship Award. (The preceding information was taken from the North Reading Transcript.)

ANSWER TO THIS WEEK'S TRIVIA QUESTION: The first famous athlete to have his number retired by his team was Lou Gehrig. The New York Yankees retired his famous No. 4 during a grand ceremony on July 4, 1939. Congratulations to those that answered the question correctly, and look for this space next week to find another sports-related trivia question.

DO YOU KNOW SOMETHING WE DON'T? If you have information about a local athlete that you would like to see appear in this column, please mail it to: Paul Feely, Middlesex East Sports, P.O. Box 240, Reading, MA, 01867, or call Paul at 617-944-2200 between 7 am and 3:30 pm, Monday through Friday. Items can also be faxed at 617-942-0884.
